

English 11 Summer Reading Assignment Part Two:

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

Due The First Day Of School

Before you complete this assignment, you must read the novel Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury in its entirety. The assignment below asks you to observe the way that characters of the book interact with futuristic items like television and cars as well as how they react to other forms of entertainment like talking and reading. Consider Ray Bradbury's ideas for the future and the way that we live today. You will evaluate whether or not his predictions were correct.

1. Consider the following term:

a. DYSTOPIAN (dis -tope-ee-an) NOVEL: a book written about a future time that depicts a society where people lead undesirable, fearful, or otherwise negative lives.

2. Compare Ray Bradbury's Predictions to today's society: Ray Bradbury wrote his novel Fahrenheit 451 in the year 1953 before the invention of many technologies that we use today. In the novel he imagines that technology will be the downfall of art, culture, and knowledge. Your job is to complete the table below and examine the author's attitude toward the listed items as well as how we view those things today.
