Good Afternoon, SCA families,

While we know this Spring Break has been like no other, we pray you've made lasting memories with your family during this unprecedented time in history.

We are sending this quick note as we get ready to launch our online blended learning platform tomorrow morning. We are so excited about this, as our teachers have worked extremely hard preparing for the next couple weeks of virtual, at home, learning while we are away from campus. We hope to be back on campus sooner than later, however, we will continue this process until it is safe to return to campus.

Each of the school principals sent out a video prior to spring break that had important information and is available for a reference should you need it. However, as a reminder, teachers in MS/HS will be posting information through RenWeb with the daily plans at least the night before. Virtual learning will be primarily through the use of Microsoft Teams, which is accessible through any computer device or smart phone. In Elementary, depending on the grade level, there may be some variation. Each Elementary teacher should have communicated login information to you by this time.

Here is the link for login information to Teams:

Please know we are here to help, and our IT department is ready to assist as well. If you need IT assistance their email address is

SCA-helpdesk@scamail.org

We recognize that each of our families is in a unique situation and we know that it may not be easy. If there is a moment when either parent or student or both are overwhelmed with the task it is okay to stop and temporarily put the work aside. Please feel free to reach out directly to the teachers at any time via email. Please be patient as we work through any challenges. As we begin this new process we will want your feedback on what is working well as well as opportunities for improvements.

We all understand this is uncharted territory for us all, but we know we will get through this together. We don't know why this is happening, but God has a plan and as believers we can proceed with faith and not fear for we serve a big God with big plans for each one of us! We miss you all so much and can't wait to have you all back on campus! Until then, let's all let our lights shine brighter than ever for Jesus! We are so grateful to have such amazing students and families! Fly high Eagles!

Gratefully,

Mrs. Moy, Mr. Bynum, and Mr. Richards
