COURSE-SPECIFIC NOTES

We will focus on the writing process this year. Students will be guided through how to write essays step-by-step, as well as how to research a claim and defend their thesis. In addition to reading novels and writing in class, we use Savvas reading curriculum. Students will be expected to complete online Savvas reading comprehension assignments as well as reading (on their own) 100 minutes every week.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Students are expected to bring required supplies by the first week of school
Summer reading project is due on the first day of school. Email holemon@scamail.org with questions.
